Bath and shower screen were removed and rotten floorboards were taken out. A couple of the joists were repaired and new floor boards were fitted then the bath was refitted, resealed and reconnected to water supply. Comments: Everything was done to my satisfaction. They turned up when they were supposed to and kept me informed of what they were doing. Any waste was removed and the room left tidy and without any mess when they were finished. No hidden "extras". The price quoted right at the start was the amount I had to pay. Very trustworthy and I will be calling them first if I need any other repairs done to my home.
