REVIEW OF POLLING DISTRICTS AND PLACES 2018/2019

What is the review about?

West Lothian Council has a duty to review all polling districts, places and stations within the 16 month period commencing on 1 October 2018, and will start this review on 3 December 2018. The council must ensure that all electors have reasonable facilities for voting and we must also make sure that, as far as is reasonable and practicable, the polling places are accessible to all electors including those who are disabled.

Where to find more information about the review

Details of polling districts and places are available on the council website (www.westlothian.gov.uk) and in libraries

Who can take part in the review?

If you live in the Livingston or the Linlithgow & East Falkirk Parliamentary Constituencies and want to have your say regarding your polling place, we would like to hear from you - especially if you can suggest a better alternative polling place. We would also welcome comments from person or body with expertise in access for persons with any type of disability. The Returning Officer will also provide comments, which will be also be available on the council website and in libraries

We can accept representations from you up to 25 January 2019 and you can respond in the following ways:

Email: Elections@westlothian.gov.uk
Mail: Election Office
West Lothian Council
Civic Centre
Howden South Road
Livingston
