

Phone & Collect

To receive a collection of reading material please phone the library you wish to collect your selections from. You will find the library contact details and opening hours here: <https://www.westlothian.gov.uk/your-library>

Please let the staff member know your preferences for selection. We can offer a selection of 5 five books from any one of the genres below, or a mix of genres if preferred.

If you wish to reserve a specific item which is only available from a different WL library, we can request this for you and you will be contacted when it is available for collection from your chosen library.

Adventure thrillers

Family sagas

Crime

Modern woman

Science fiction

Horror

General fiction

Romance

Westerns

Large print

Talking books

If your selections are in stock you will then be given an appointment for collection at the library you have chosen books from. If your selection is being transferred from another library or is currently on loan we will contact you when it is available and you can then book your collection appointment.

- Please arrive at the library you have chosen at your appointed time where you will be greeted by a staff member who will hand you your books.
- Please note there will be no entry to the library, all books will be handed over at the door.
- If you wish to return books this can also be done at this time
- Please ensure you maintain social distancing at all times.
