Armadale Library
Summer Reading Challenge - Family Treasure Hunt

What can you find

and how much do you know about Armadale?

1. The Town of Armadale was named after the estate of Armadale in Sutherland in the North of Scotland. The estate was owned by someone called Sir William Honeyman.

   Armadale was previously called Barbauchlaw and Sir William Honeyman renamed it in 1797.

   Name any of the 2 streets in Armadale named after this information…

Your answer:_____

2. Lance Corporal William Angus from Armadale was given the Victoria Cross in 1915 for extreme bravery when saving a fellow soldier. He was born at Cappers in Armadale, which street is named after where he was born?

Your answer:_____

Where in the town will you find this?

Your answer:_____

3. The Goth in Armadale was erected in 1924 in memory of Malcolm Mallace. The clock tower has been keeping us right on time since 1924!

What street is named after Malcolm?

Your answer:_____

4. Watson Park is the site of our War Memorial

Where else would you find this street name?

Your answer:_____

5. Provost William Ferrier was Provost of Armadale from 1955-1958 and 1971-1978 (Provost Ferrier meeting a special couple who visited Armadale in 1955)

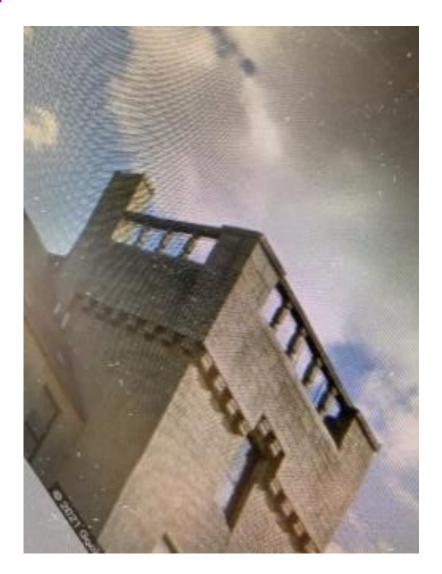

Name one of the streets named after past provosts in the Town…

Your answer:_____

Armadale Library
Summer Reading Challenge - Family Treasure Hunt

And finally,

6. Where is this building in the town and what was it formerly called?

Your answers:_____